

Quality Literacy Education for

Students with Special Needs

Friday, March 2, 2012

South Central Service Cooperative Conference Center
2075 Lookout Drive, North Mankato, MN

Reading and literacy education happens in many ways for students with special needs.

Coffee & Registration: 8:00-8:30
Workshop hours: 8:30-2:30 (full day workshop)
Cost: $25 Includes lunch and CEU
Registration: Online at mnsccsc.org. Click on Special Education.
Target Audience: Regular education teachers and special education teachers, DCD, AT, TDHH, and Autism resource teachers

8:30-11:00 Region 9 Autism Specialists will address what is literacy and strategies for providing instruction to students with special education needs.

11:00-11:30 Lunch

11:30-2:30 Spend the afternoon with Annie Minske and expand your teaching and help kids express their ideas through book making. Learn new ways to spark interest in books for your students. Bring your creativity and ideas for simplified, modified books, book bags, plastic and paper, journal folder book, basic accordion, and index card.

Supplies to bring: Scissors, hole punch, ruler, glue stick, magazines, crayons & tape.

Reading should be fun, both for the child and the teacher.

This event is worthy for the creative and uncreative alike!
