PBIS Connect: Supporting Staff

Here are some strategies and techniques for teachers to use in improving self-care:

1. Schedule daily time for self-care, or it might not happen!
2. Make self-care a priority; even 10 minutes per day is helpful.
3. Set healthy boundaries for your time—literally use a timer and stick to your plans when it goes off.

PBIS Connect - Integrated Systems Supporting Staff

This meeting will explore smart ways to prevent teacher burnout, support staff and promote buy-in for PBIS.

Target Audience: Any PBIS team member

4. Chose fun things to do with your time, in advance.
5. Take at least two 10-15 minute breaks during the workday, in addition to lunch!
6. Connect with other teachers and share your concerns, thoughts, questions and ideas.
7. Spend time with pets!
8. Reduce clutter and keep your desk/classroom organized.
9. Celebrate successes—your own and others'!
